

APP OF THE MONTH
VISION TEST

Candy Crush, you've been dethroned. The hottest apps these days are health-related. So we looked at over two dozen that claim to check your eyesight. Only one was worth installing: Vision Test by Essilor. It helps you screen for acuity, astigmatism, color blindness and more. Plus, it gives good eye-care advice and is easy to use. Still, take note: It doesn't replace a visit to an actual eye doctor (a.k.a. a human being)!

COLLAPSIBLE KITCHENWARE

A CURE FOR OVERSTUFFED CABINETS: colanders, mixing bowls and measuring cups that not only flatten for easy storage, but also actually work, found our Kitchen Appliances Lab. The best of the bunch is the salad spinner. The collapsible one isn't quite as effective as the traditional version, but it comes close enough to make it well worth your, oh, three inches of cabinet space. We love the Squish Colander (above), $20, Chef'n Small Colander, $12, and Prepworks Salad Spinner, $33, all from amazon.com.

STYLISH SAFETY SOLUTION

It's a chic necklace that you can also wear as a belt or a handbag strap (L'flect, $47). It happens to be highly reflective and protective—even looks a bit Chanel-inspired! Come evening, it's the fashionable equivalent of those orange safety vests, which you'd never wear. We also like the pretty, reflective gear from Vespertine and Pedviz.
